

SOUTH COAST WATER DISTRICT DIRECTOR

WILLIAM L. OSSENMACHER

AGE: 46

OCCUPATION: Dana Point Councilman/ Businessman

We need William L. Ossenmacher's fiscal responsibility at South Coast Water District.

William Ossenmacher has 15+ years of outstanding Dana Point leadership. Councilman Ossenmacher's proven fiscal responsibility has made it possible to implement tens of millions in beautification, clean water projects and other community improvements - without raising taxes!

"Your families financial well-being matters to Councilman Ossenmacher. No one has been more diligent in protecting your interests."

Dana Point's property tax rate is among the lowest in the State. And it was Councilman Ossenmacher who fought to eliminate the tax on our residential trash service. Now our trash rates are among the lowest in Orange County.

William Ossenmacher has proven that with fiscally responsible leadership - our community can enjoy an excellent level of service, yet still live within our means.

"We enjoy a very high quality of life in Dana Point thanks to Councilman Ossenmacher's leadership, dedication and commitment to work relentlessly for the betterment of our community. We need William Ossenmacher's representation at SCWD."

The 3 candidates that you'll select to represent you at SCWD will affect your family's finances more than any other decision you make in this election. Vote William L. Ossenmacher for SCWD Director-proven fiscally responsible leadership!"
